AND THE NEW YORKS WIN.

Joyce's Men Tied with Philadelphia, the Latter Being Defeated by Washington - Haltmores Defeat the Brooklyne-The Clevelands and Chicagos Win-Notes. The New Yorks won a close game from the Bostons yesterday and also tied the Philadelphias, who were beaten by the Washingtons for seventh place. The Baltimores appear to be invincible just now, for they walloped the Brooklyns in great style and increased their lead to 88 points. The Clevelands had things easy with St. Louis, and are only d points behind the Cincinnatis. The Chicagos got away with Pittsburgh and tied Boston for fourth noten. The Louisvilles could not reach home in time to play, so their game with Ewing's men was postponed. The results: New York, 7; Boston, 6, Baitimore, 17; Brooklyn, 5, Washington, 19; Philadelphia, 11. Cleveland, 8; St. Louis, S. Chicago, 6: Pittsburgh, 8.

NEW YORK, 7; BOSTON, 6.

Capt. Duffy of the Bostons was so unhappy last night that he took to his bed at an early hour. In the game at the Polo grounds in the afternoon he made a surprisingly bad muff of a fly from Tiernan's bat, and lost a victory that seemed sure for the Beanesters. Happy Jack Stivetts easily outpitched Dad Clarke, but the latter's support was superior to the former's and that tells half the story. It was a game filled with exciting situations until Tucker was thrown out at the plate in the last inning with what might have been the tying run.

The Boston team is stronger than when last here, with the exception of second base. Mc-Gann may be a hitter, but he cannot play the bag with the best of minor leaguers. In Bergen, the Bostons have a remarkable catcher and in Tenney a fine batsman. Tucker seems to have taken a new lease on life, for his playing yesterday was gilt-edged. Joyce, Davis, Tiernan, and Beckley played the best ball for the locals. Campbell, who called balls and strikes, was off, both pitchers suffering about equally.

The Bostons were sent to the bat and three men were quickly put out. Van Haltren opened men were quickly put out. Van Haltren opened for New York with a base on balls and Tiernan rapped a single to left. Gleason tried to sacrifice, but forced Van at third. Joyce was hit by a pitched ball and filled the bases. Then Davis's hard base hit to left brought in Mike and Kid, and Beckley filed to Collins. Stafford got a life on the third basenan's low throw and the bases were covered again. But Wilson forced Stafford. In the second, Long struck out, and hits by Tucker and McGann made things interesting. But Bergen filed to Stafford and Beckley threw Collins out, Clark covering first in fine style. For the locals, Clarke beat out a hit to Long and reached second on a passed ball, after Van Haltren and Tiernan had filed out. Then Gleason grounded to Tucker and was called out, although it seemed as if he had beaten the throw to Slivetts.

Stivetts opened Roston's third with a hit, and trotted to second on Stafford's fumble. Hamilton hit to Joyce, who made a bluff throw and then turned round in time to put Stivetts out. Tenney's liner was muffed by Joyce, who then picked up a grounder from Duffy and executed a fine double play by touching third and throwing to Beckley. The New Yorks were blanked, too, although Davis got a base on balls with one out.

Clarke continued to fool Selee's men in the

Clarke continued to fool Selee's men in the fourth, and three of them fell on infield hits. Wilson began the last half with a pretty single, but was caught stealing after Clarke had field out, and then Long settled Van with a fine stop and through and throw.

The Bostons took the lead in the fifth, Clarke The Bostons took the lead in the fifth. Clarke gave bases on balls to Collins and Hamilton, and Tenney drove one into the right-field seats for four bags. Duffy shot a two-bagger to left and stayed on the bag, as Long was third onton a grounder to Davis. Stivetts bowled Joyce's mer. over in order, his speed being wonderful. With one out in Boston's sixth, McGann was hit by a pitched ball, only to be forced by Bergen, and Collins was third out on a fly to Tiernan. The New Yorks then tied the score. With one out Tenney muffed Beckley's fly and Jake reached second. He went to third on McGann's fumble of Stafford's grounder, and crossed the plate on Wilson's out. Duffy pulled in a liner from Clarke, Stafford being left at second.

Tenney hit safely after two were out in the seventh, but Duffy's hot line drive nestled in Davis's glove. Mike Tiernan came to time in the last half of this inning with a spanking drive over the right field ropes for a home run, which put the locals one point ahead. Joyce also took two bases on a schoolboy muff by McGann, but was left.

took two bases on a senoolooy mun by sicesain, but was left.

In the eighth the Boston's sized up Clarke's curves for three runs. With Long out Tucker took a base on balls and was forced by McGann. Then Bergen, Collins, Stivetts, and Hamilton knocked out base hits. Tenney also got a life on Gleason's fumble, and, with the bases still full, Duffy hit -2 Joyce, and Hamilton was caught on the way to third.

The score was now 6 to 4, and Joyce's men began another uphill tight. Heckley and Stafford singled, and Wilson, who tried to bunt, filed to Stivetts. Clarke's base on balls filled the bases, singled, and Wilson, who tried to bunt, filed to stivetts. Clarke's base on balls filled the bases, Van Haltren feuled to Bergen, and then Duffy, the Boston captain, not only misjudged, but also muffed Tiernan's fly, Beckley and Stafford running home with runs that made the score even up again. Gleason filled the bases with a scratch hit, and when Joyce was hit for the sec-ond time with a pitched ball, Clarke was al-vanced to the rubber with the run that put his scratch bit, and when Joyce was hit for the second time with a pitched ball, Clarke was advanced to the rubber with the run that put his side ahead. Then Davis filed to Duffy and three

In the ninth, after Long had filed out, Tucker droves three-bagger to right, and was nipped at the plate on Mcciann's tap to Joyce. Then Rergen filed to Davis, and the Beaneaters were beaten. The score;

Golderest and Damien and Harry Reed and Magina Fight It Out in Their Respective Races-Rebo and Blue Bevil Leave the Maiden Class-St. Jacobs a Good Jumper Four thousand persons saw some rattling good sport at Gravesend resterday afternoon. The programme was barren of stake features, but the seven races filled well and were fought out to the bitter end. Heads and necks separated the first and second horses in several instances, and the public had to await the official placing to know which horse had won. The finish be tween Harry Reed and Magian in the selling race at six furlongs was particularly good and brought cheers from the spectators.

The fifth race at one mile, a handicap for the day as far as class went, Keenan, Rubicon, Damien, Goldcrest, and Lake Shore being the chief participants. The oft-tried Rubicon was made favorite at 8 to 5, and the California jockey. Coady, was placed in the saddle. Damien was second choice at 316 to 1. There was 4 to 1 against Lake Shore, 5 to 1 Goldcrest, and 7 to 1 each against Ferries and Keepan. Declare was the outsider Goldcrest and Keenan made the running side by side until the head of the stretch was reached. The threeyear-olds then drew out, followed by Damien on the extreme outside. Rubicon had been going smoothly enough, but when Coady called on him he absolutely refused to try, and, instead of closing on the others in the run home, as he was confidently expected to do, he dropped entirely out of danger. Ferrier was another that had no speed, and Lake Shore, well up during the early stages of the contest, also was in difficulties a quarter of a mile from bome. Damien is a good, game three-year-old, but he wasn't good enough yesterday to concede such a colt as Goldcrest nine pounds and a beating. Hewitt sat right down on Billy Lakeland's colt, and although Damien tried hard and was well ridden by Martin, the Beach Comber got home first by a good longneck. Keenan was a good third. Goldcrest should have been well played yesterday, for in the mile and a half race on the turf at Sheepshead Bay on Saturday last, when Keenan won, he had speed enough to finish in front. He was badly pecketed in the last hundred yards and could not get through.

The first and second races were practically devold of interest. They were for two-year-olds which had not run first, second, or third, and there wan't a single withdrawal in either of them. For the opening dash the talent selected E. B. Snedeker's Kebo, a good-looking coit by Tea Tray, outof Kalula, making him favorite at 2½ and 3 to 1. Arabian was second choice. The first and second choices were in front all the way, and they finished necks apart in the order of preference. Miss Lillian was a good third.

For the second half Lineage, Blue Devil had the speed of the party, and beat Lineage a length in a driving finish, with Sir Frederick a good third. Chum, a good-looking half brother to Lucania, showed speed in the early part of the race, but died away in the stretch. Tea Caddy was extremely green and seemed to be afraid of his horses.

Ben Eder, running in blinkers, was the favorite for the dash of one mile for three-year-olds, Salvable and Volley going to the post strong second choices at 3 to 1. Volley was cut off at the first turn and had his chances of victory extinguished. Salvable led under a pull, but Ben Eder seemed canable of going up to Dunne's colt at any time between the half and three-quarter pole. Simms indulged Salvable with the lead until the head of the stretch and the son of Salvator and Lydia won hands down by two lengths. Brisk was a poor third.

The Manuman was favorite for thee fourthers and shalf furiours, with turf at Sheepshead Bay on Saturday last, when Keenan won, he had speed enough to finish in won hands down by two lengths. Brisk was a poor third.

The Manxman was favorite for the fourth event, a dash at five and a half furlongs, with Swamp Angel second choice, and backed down from 6 to 1 to 3½ to 1 at the post. The Manxman was jumped on and thrown at the end of the first furlong, leaving Hen Ronald, Flying Squadron, and Zaraida In front. Swamp Angel ran around a big buach of horses on the turn and closed through the stretch in commany with Clymena. Neither could overtake Hen Ronald, and Lewis was sitting still at the wire at the end of a first run race. Tarai was unburt and walked across the field while The Manxman gailoped round the track. There was a lot of humping and crowding in the early part of this race, and there was considerable foul riding before the field strung out.

Harry Reed was favorite for the dash at six furlongs. Lady Diamond and Zanone coming in for more support than any of the others. Harry Reed was in front to the stretch, attended by Zanone and The Swain. In the homestretch Clayton brought the 8 to 1 chance Magian up and a fierce drive to the wire followed. Zanone and The Swain. In the homestretch Clayton brought the 8 to 1 chance Magian up and a fierce drive to the wire followed. Zanone and The Swain died away and Harry Reed was only winner by a short head from Magian in another stride.

St. Jacobs, a crack jumper all the way from Montana, won the hursile handicap at one mile and three-quarters. This gelding was touted for a real good thing, and the talent finally sent him to the post favorite at 8 to 5. He was ridden by Martie. McKee was third. Hed Cloud was off last and was never near the front. The winner stride. Mr. Daily bought Wood Violet in foal to St. Blaise, and St. Jacobs was dropped in Montana.

The public will regret to learn that Secretary Welntyre of the Brooklyn Jockey Club is still confined to his house.

The lovers of basebaft at Tremont and its near vicinity are very anxious to see a game arranged between the Suburbae Basebaft Cinto and the Claremonts. The two teams are practically the strongest amateur clubs in New York, and a game between then would be worth travelling a long distance to see. The teams played two games tast year, and both resulted in a victory for the Claremonts. There seems to be some misunderstanding this year, which accounts for no game being arranged as yet. stranged as yet.

Haltmong, Sept. 9.—Manager Hanlon is already looking forward to strengthening his club for next year. He has decided to employ a regular substitute outfielder. The man he has selected is Guiffielder Shade of the Houston, Tex., clou. His contract has been forwarded, and he is expected in Haltimore shortly, as the Texas Leigue season will end in a few days. He will probably be seen in some of the games before the season closes. He is smit to be a tall y-ung fellow, very fast on his feet, and a heavy batter.

Yearling. J. C. Cahn's good two-year-old Typhoon II., by imported Topgallant, out of Dolly Varden, was seriously injured at the Sheepshead Bay track yesterday morning, and will not be in condition to race again this year.

Typhoon 11, was being galloped the right way of the track, when he was run into by a yearling owned by the Messrs, Keene and was thrown heavily. The crack two-year-old immethrown heavily. The crack two-year-old immediately swelled up over the loins and there was a great bruise on his chest, and he was taken to his stable with great difficulty. Typhoon II, is one of the best coits out and has won more races than any other two-year-old in training hereabouts. Must of his triumphs were achieved on Western courses. He was brought East only a couple of weeks ago, and signalized his debut in the East by winning the Golden Rod Stakes at or weeks ago, and signalized his dood in the East by winning the Golden Rod Stakes at Sheepsnead Hay. He carried 124 pounds at his next essay, and ran second to Ogden for the Great Eastern Handicap. He was well engaged in all of the stakes for his age to be decided at Gravesend and Morris Park. Mr. Cahn reently refused an offer of $10,000 for the col

CHAMPION ATHLETES ON EBGE. The A. A. U. Annual Tourney Promises

The entry list for the annual track and field hampionships of the Amateur Athletic Union closed definitely yesterday, and the indications are that, outside one or two "walk-overs," the competitions will be as keen as the most critical visitors desire.

With Wefers in the 100, 220, and 440 yard runs few are inclined to look outside him for a winner, especially in the two shorter distances. in the quarter-mile run Wefers will be confronted by Tom Burke, the national, international, and Olympic champion at the distance. Burke is usually a slow beginner, and relies on the sprint through the stretch. With Wefers in the game, Burke cannot afford to try on any waiting taction, as, unless Wefers is tiptoed for the sprint through the stretch. With Wefers in the game, Burke cannot afford to try on any waiting tacties, as, unless Wefers is tipted for the first furlong, his marveilous speed and stride should enable him to run all over his field in the final rush for the tape. The chances are, however, that Wefers and Burke, who are entered in the same colors, will not clash. In that event the famous pair will probably have it out at Travers Island later on.

The half-mile run will be especially interesting as a decisive trial of merit between Charley kilpatrick, present holder of the world's record, and his latest rivals, W. S. Hipple, A. W. Gifford, and G. G. Hollander. Gifford, who represents the Montreal A. A., is the athlete who forced Kilpatrick to do seconds inside the Canadian record last year. He is so good that his followers believe nothing short of a world's record can beat him. Kilpatrick has a wholesome respect for him since the pair met in the Canadian championship last fall, and the next meeting between the pair is looked forward to with widespread interest.

The distance runs, hurdle races, and field events are more or less of a lottery, and this fact serves te increase the general interest, as hundreds of the critics are divided in their estimates of the possible winners. Sam Liebgold is conceded to have a mortgage on both walks, but at that he will have to make time to shake off the other aspirants.

At the Local Traps. The results of the various events in the tournament of the Interstate Association, which closed yesterday on the grounds of the Endeavor Gun Club at Marion, showed some good work. In addition to the ten regular events yesterday, there were four extra swee stakes the latter being under expert rules. The shooting in the former, with the exception of the ninth event, was all done at unknown angles under the five-trap rapid-firing system. The shooting in the ninth event was atknown traps and angles. The Rose system was continued in dividing the stakes. In all the events baving upward of ten entries to mere were four moneys in each. The scores of the leaders were as follows:
